10 essentials for artpreneurs...and that's you

- 1. Be ready to do what you love and live what you do. You won't be able to put your passion down. And that's a good thing.
- 2. Embrace a broad perspective. One day you're up the next ... Your business will deal the ebb and flow of the market every day – and you're part of it.
- 3. Be relentless in the pursuit of your goals. Keep producing, creating, providing, making, performing – ESPECIALLY when it feels as if no one's watching. The most well-known in your industry have simply been showing up the longest and with the greatest tenacity.
- 4. Set long-term, annual, short-term, monthly, weekly, daily goals and deadlines for yourself. Know what it is that you want in exchange for your time and energy. Set deadlines and meet them.
- 5. Wear your many hats proudly. In your business, you're your own everything. There's a lot of work to be done, and the only way to do it is by taking things one step at a time.
- 6. Trust yourself. If you want to make something happen, you have to go for it.
- 7. Be open to constructive criticism. Ask for tips and advice from someone who doesn't want to appease you or invite an honest discussion with a peer.
- 8. Never underestimate your customers. If you don't authentically believe in the quality and value of your goods, or if you don't genuinely and passionately love what you do, they won't buy it.
- 9. Give and be helpful. Spread helpfulness that will become fulfilling relationships. Clients buy you as well as your product.
- 10. Be responsible for your own success and learn from your mistakes. Don't wait for a marketplace to get you views and sales, go out and find your own customers!
