School for Superheroes is a collaborative drama program between Community Living Dufferin and Theatre Orangeville where people's abilities are celebrated.

Are you an artist living and/or working in the Headwaters Region? Are you looking for other artists who are struggling with many of the same issues you face as the art landscape seems to be changing? Are you looking for the support and encouragement of other creatives? Then perhaps you might be interested in an online community. A Facebook group, Artist Community of the Headwaters Region, has been created and you are invited to join. The purpose of this group is to provide an online community as support and encouragement to other artists who are working in the area. If you have a Facebook account, all you have to do is search for the name (Artist Community of the Headwaters Region) and ask to join. Once you are a member of the group you can invite others to join as well. There are really only 2 rules for the group, 1: it is not a place to sell art and 2: be nice! You can "leave" the group at any time if you find it is not for you. No pressure! The more the merrier as they say so please join us.

If you have any questions feel free to email Deb Menken at: menken.deb@gmail.com.

The Caledon Townhall Players. The Theatre Group: The Caledon Townhall Players (CTHP) had their first performance of "Angels Unawares" in June 1962 in the Old Townhall, in the Village of Caledon. Subsequently, a series of short-term leases to continue use of the building were drawn up between CTHP and the Town of Caledon, and they have been presenting live theatre productions in that venue ...
