Exhibit: Quirky Tunes The DCMA has an impressive collection of over 1500 pieces of sheet music. From songs that we know and love, to interesting titles such as, "All the World Will Be Jealous of Me" and "If You Talk In Your Sleep Don't Mention My Name."

The Residents of Dufferin County by Photographer Emily Curd is a fine art documentary photography exhibition by local Mulmur photographer Emily Curd: "you do not have to travel far to realize the beauty we have right in our own backyard and appreciate the people who create this welcoming community."

The World Remembers: A Digital Exhibition The 1914-1918 war is distant history for many Canadians. To assist in making distant history relevant, The World Remembers is a digital exhibition that provides the means to personalize the study of history and connect individuals and communities within Canada and around the world through the use of technology.

Georgian Bay Primordial: An Immersive Installation by Sue Miller Sue Miller is an accomplished artist and arts educator from Creemore, Ontario. Her newest collection of works, which together are known as Georgian Bay Primordial, honour the beauty and simplicity of the natural environment. With no pre-determined plan, Sue's paintings evolve naturally. Her pieces feature warm under-staining and layer upon layer of viscous oil paint. Accompanied by intricately detailed three-d

Workshop: 18 November 2017 David Chesterton
on "Portraiture Dimensions"

OAG Members kicked off their Art Rotation at the Headwaters Hospital Display on May 27, 2017. From the Chinese paper-making avant-garde creations of Del Foxton to the photography of Jeffrey Nagy; from the watercolour creations of Zig Elles, the acrylics of Linda Robertson, the palette-knife oil painting landscapes of Warren Galloway, the diversity of styles and media is amply represented here. And... All are for Sale! "Owning original art has unequivocally positive effects for those who own it. Simply put, it makes life more livable." Tell Your Friends... Drop on by and have a look - Support these amazing Artists!
