Sunday, October 28th – 2pm opening. Runs until December 23, 2018 Lifefactually – A Photography Exhibit – Photography by Pete Paterson Life isn't easy. These photographs remind us that there are more things that tie us together than hold us apart. They are about LIFE at its best – finding meaning and joy in our relationships, our work, our hobbies, and our communities.

Join us for the opening of the permanent Corn Flower Glass Gallery on Sunday November 11th at 10am. Custom exhibit cases and state-of-the-art lighting show off the intricate details of the glass – each piece was hand-cut by talented craftsmen in the Toronto factory. The exhibition also features interactive displays, historic photographs of the Dufferin community, funky advertising materials and of course, the most rare, colourful and quirky Corn Flower glass (a toothpick holder shaped like a boot?!).

Shannon Kingsbury - Singer-Songwriter-Harpist, Pastoral Art Folk: The stories and worlds captured in Shannon's music are at once familiar and somehow borne of another time. Her sophomore release, Bones & Secrets, weaves in images of spring, transformation and rebirth, the Greek origin myth of Persephone, heroines reclaiming and retelling their own stories, melancholy lullabies and middle-of-the-night musings. Multi-instrumentalist Gary Diggins and vocalist Tricia Brubacher lend their magic to illuminate songs that range from sizzling to soothing.
